

Parks Make Life Better Video Contest!

Get Active from the Ground Up

VIDEO SUBMISSION REGULATIONS

1. Visit a County of San Diego Parks and Recreation facility. Please make sure you are following the rules of the park and that your activities are legal.
2. Video your classmates, friends, and/or family participating in an activity or just enjoying the park or facility and tell us why your class thinks "parks make life better."
3. An authorized school representative will fill out the online entry form and upload the completed class video no later than December 31, 2013.
4. Copyright Material: All entries submitted must be original and shall not infringe on any copyrights or any other rights of any third parties. Do not use any materials (photos, music, sound effects, video, etc.) that have a copyright. Any use of copyrighted material, without the owner's approval, will disqualify your entry.
5. The video must not include brand names or trademarks.
6. Video must not contain material that infringes another's rights, including but not limited to privacy, publicity or intellectual property.
7. The video must not contain material that is inappropriate, indecent, obscene, hateful, defamatory, slanderous, or libelous.

County of San Diego Parks and Recreation “Parks Make Life Better” Video Contest

8. The video must not contain material that promotes bigotry, racism, hatred, or harm against any group or individual, or promotes discrimination based on race, sex, religion, nationality, disability, sexual orientation or age.
9. The video must not violate any County of San Diego or Department of Parks and Recreation ordinances, regulations or policies.
10. The video must not contain any political or religious advertising.
11. The video should demonstrate common sense and good taste.
12. The video must not contain material that is unlawful, in violation of or contrary to the laws or regulations in the state of California.
13. The County of San Diego Department of Parks and Recreation is not responsible for any bodily injury or harm, destruction or loss of property, or monetary loss that may result from participation.
14. Youth must be the lead in producing and editing the video.
15. By submitting a video, all entrants grant the County of San Diego Department of Parks and Recreation a non-exclusive license to present or distribute the video in any manner and medium whatsoever, with no compensation other than any prize awarded to you.
16. Please note incomplete entries and those submitted after the deadline of December 31, 2013 at 11:59 PM pacific standard time will not be considered.
17. Do not include any phone numbers or website addresses except for www.sdparks.org. You may include your name and those on your team as producers of the video if you choose, although it is not necessary.
18. To air in the media, you'll need to provide the original video file. Providing the file is NOT a requirement to participate, it's merely an option if you'd like your winning video on any public media outlets.
19. All people in the video must sign a release waiver by a consenting adult. Release waivers should be mailed to the County of San Diego Department of Parks and Recreation, Attention: Marketing, 5500 Overland Avenue, Ste. 410, San Diego, CA 92123 to qualify for judging.
20. The authorized school representative must sign a copyright understanding for the video contest entry.
21. The winning videos will not be returned, and may be displayed, duplicated, edited and exhibited for educational or promotional purposes as deemed appropriate by the County of San Diego. Submission of the video constitutes your approval for such use and exhibition. We suggest you make a duplicate of your video in case it is damaged in mailing.

The County of San Diego Department of Parks and Recreation reserves the right to disqualify any submissions that do not adhere to these terms and conditions. A consenting school representative will be responsible for submitting the video entry form.